

Tejas Office Products Bids Farewell to Lynette Read

HOUSTON (September 30, 2014) - Tejas Office Products announced today that long-time employee Lynette Read will be leaving the organization to make a career change. Read has accepted the position of assistant director of children's ministry at Christ Church United Methodist in The Woodlands, Texas.

"We are excited to have our long-term volunteer and friend join us as assistant director of children's ministries," Amy Mitcham, director of children's ministries, said. "Lynette has been instrumental in developing programs for our elementary students and we look forward to having her to further God's kingdom in a full-time capacity in children and family ministry."

Read joined Tejas Office Products in the early 1990s in the sales department. At one point, she left the company to pursue another passion of hers, operating her own dance studio and working with young children. Read returned to Tejas full time in 2000. She was integral in the company's conversion to Microsoft Dynamics in April 2007 and has served as the sales manager since July 2009.

"We certainly appreciate all that Lynette has given during her tenure with us," Tejas President Stephen M. Fraga said. "We wish her the very best and know that her talents and energy will be put to good use."

Read's last day with Tejas Office Products will be Tuesday, September 30, 2014. Any sales-related questions or issues can be directed to Alisa Fraga Kautzmann.
